

POPULARITY.—A DIALOGUE.

SEVERAL A Lawyer's Office.
Enter a Presbyterian.
Lawyer.—Good morning, Mr. P. Take a seat, Sir. I attended your meeting, yesterday, and was highly gratified with your new preacher, I admire the warm and powerful style your eloquence and of late adopting. It is certainly well calculated to awaken the thoughtless. If you settle Mr. M. in your society, you may consider me as a subscriber. It is true I am not attached to any body of Christians, but I believe the great bulwark of our national liberties must be the diffusion of knowledge; and I have always observed your people to be foremost in patronizing and sustaining our seminaries and institutions of learning.—By the by, this reminds me that our election is at hand—I hope Mr. P., we have the pleasure of numbering you among our friends, in the approaching contest.
Presbyterian. I will think of it, Sir.
Enter Baptist.
Lawyer. Good morning, Mr. B. I am glad you have called. Well, I went down to the river, yesterday noon, to witness the immersion; and I must say that it is a beautiful ordinance; and it seems to me, that your mode of administering it is the most simple and primitive. To see a little group stand upon the banks of the flowing stream—unite their voices in that beautiful hymn, "O, how blest are they,"—while the candidate goes down into the water, and comes out of the water, brings forcibly to one's mind the scenes of Jordan and Judea.—Besides your clergyman, Elder K. is a very interesting man. Your church government I have always admired—it is so republican. It was Elder L., of your order, I believe, who carried the great Cheshire cheese to Jefferson. He has been a faithful old patriot. Ah, this puts me in mind that the Jeffersonian principles are again to be contested this fall, and I hope we shall find you, Mr. B., as firm a patriot as Elder L. has been.

Enter Episcopalian.
Lawyer. Your most obedient servant, Mr. E.—happy to see you, Sir. Well, I was in New York, last week, and I walked four miles in the morning, to hear Bishop H. He is truly a polished and eloquent man; and there is something in your mode of worship so systematic—and so much in accordance with decency and order, and so much the opposite of that wild and ranting court at the time and place aforesaid, to show cause, if any you have, why the said account should not be allowed.

Quakers, society would resemble the state of our first parents in Eden.
Quaker. We shall never be all Quakers so long as so many of us are hypocrites, and so long as hypocrites have so much influence. If thy grandfather was a Quaker, I am sorry thee has so degenerated from thy ancestors. The scruples those professes against military duty condemn thee; for thee must be strongly deluded by the devil to violate thy conscience at so great expense. Thee speaks our language very flippantly and admires our dress. Thy ordinary dialect and thy fashionable blue coat, figured vest, and gaudy watch establishment, are incontestible proofs of thy sincerity. Thee eulogizes Penn. I have heard thee eulogize Napoleon as highly. I have observed the duplicity thou uses for popularity. Thee reads a sermon for the Presbyterians in the morning when they have no preaching. Thee goes in the afternoon and leads singing for the churchmen. In the evening thee goes to the Universalist meeting. Thee admires the immersion of the Baptist, the Camp Meetings of the Methodist, and the plain dress and language of the Friends. I will tell thee, friend, thee strongly reminds me of my brown horse. I once employed an honest Irishman to labor for me. I sent Patrick out in the morning to catch my brown horse. Now the brown horse ran in a pasture, in the middle of which was a large pond. Patrick was gone a long time, and at length returned with the beast, after having chased him several times round the pond. "Well, Patrick," said I, "on which side of the pond did thee find the horse?" "Troth," said Patrick, "and I found him on all sides."

 To the Honorable the Probate Court for the District of Randolph:
SARAH MARTIN, guardian of Daniel D. Aaron G. Lydia and Kimball Martin, minors, children and heirs of Gordon Martin, late of Williamstown, in said district, deceased, represents to said Court that each of her said wards, holds as heir to the estate of the said deceased, one equal undivided eighth part of all the real estate whereof the said deceased died seized and possessed, consisting of the home farm, an undivided half of the Corner farm, so called, a piece of land called the Burnham land, and one other piece called the Fox land. All of said land is situated in said Williamstown. She further represents to said Court that the just interest of her said wards requires that said real estate should be sold and the avails thereof put at interest. She therefore prays said Court to grant her licence to sell and convey the same, together with their right in the reversion in the dower of the widow in said estate.

BOOKS
E. P. WALTON & SON have just received a new and general assortment of Books and Stationary from the city of New York.
 June 3, 1836.

JUST PUBLISHED and for sale at the Anti-Slavery Rooms, 46 Washington street, Price 50 cents, Lectures of George Thompson, Esq. with a full report of his Polemical contests with Peter Borthwick, Esq. the advocate of the pro-slavery party in England. This work has been compiled from various English editions, and such lectures only selected as have a bearing on the general question of slavery throughout the world.
CONTENTS.
 1. A brief History of Mr Thompson's connexion with the Anti-Slavery cause in England, and the reasons which induced him to visit the United States.
 2. Speech delivered in the Wesleyan Methodist Chapel, Irwell-street, Manchester, England, being a reply to Mr Borthwick's statement on the subject of slavery, London: J. Hatch & Son, 187, Piccadilly, 1832. The subject in this lecture, is discussed on the principle of 'Right between Man and Man.' The reporter says "The moment Mr Thompson was recognized walking a long throng towards the vestry, a burst of applause immediately proceeded from the auditory. Precisely at seven o'clock he ascended the pulpit, accompanied by the Borough reeve, Wm. Hill, Esq., Mr Peter Clare, one of the Secretaries of the Anti-Slavery Society, and Mr James Everett, one of the members of the committee. To the latter was assigned the office of arranging and handing to the speaker the documentary papers requisite to support the great cause of humanity. The large and beautiful Chapel was crowded with a highly respectable auditory, and never was a speaker more enthusiastically received, more attentively heard, or more feelingly responded to."
 3. Discussion between Mr Thompson and Mr Borthwick, held at the Royal Amphitheatre, Liverpool. The discussion was continued six evenings with unabated interest. The Liverpool papers state that although the house would accommodate 4000 persons yet every evening many hundreds were unable to gain admission.
 4. Lecture delivered Thursday evening, September 20, 1832, in the Irwell street Chapel, Salford, Manchester. This Lecture was delivered soon after Mr Borthwick, the West Indian pro-slavery advocate, had publicly said that he would follow Mr Thompson 'from place to place, like his evil genius.' The following question is discussed in this Lecture: 'Can any circumstances justify man in holding his fellow-men as property?' This Lecture, says the Reporter, was announced to commence at seven o'clock. The admission was by tickets, for which there was an unprecedented demand. As early as five o'clock the doors were surrounded by a number of most respectable persons, and by half past six the Chapel was crowded by one of the most respectable audiences ever witnessed in Manchester or Salford. We observed a considerable number of the Society of Friends present. At twenty minutes before seven Mr Thompson was recognized walking down the aisle, attended by several of his friends, and was greeted with enthusiastic cheers. A few minutes before seven W. Hill, Esq. the Borough reeve entered, and was loudly cheered. Precisely at seven o'clock Mr Thompson accompanied by the Borough reeve and Mr Peter Clare, left the vestry and ascended the pulpit stairs. Mr Thompson came to the front of the pulpit, bowed respectfully to the assembly, and was received with immense cheers, which lasted a considerable time."
 5. Speech of Mr Thompson, at the great Anti Colonization meeting, held in Exeter Hall, London, July 1833, James Cropper, Esq. in the Chair. The following resolution was offered to the meeting by Mr Thompson and unanimously adopted:
 "Resolved, That the colored people of the United States, fully aware that the object of the American Colonization Society is not their improvement and happiness, have declared their detestation of it in the most solemn and public manner; that that oppressed people have our heart felt sympathy; and that the principles and efforts of their advocates, the Anti-Slavery Society of New England, have our cordial approbation."
 The work consists of 200 pages and may be had at the Anti-Slavery Rooms in New York, Providence, Boston and Concord.

PROSPECTUS OF THE WEEKLY EMANCIPATOR.
 THE Executive Committee of the American Anti-Slavery Society find it impossible, by the plan of monthly publication alone, to spread before the public the mass of Anti-Slavery intelligence and documents which is constantly accumulating on their hands, and which ought to be in the possession of abolitionists throughout the land. Notwithstanding the fierce and systematic opposition with which the Anti-Slavery cause has to contend, it progresses with such unexampled rapidity, that its exigencies cannot be met without an enlargement of the operations of the press. This has been felt by its friends in different parts of the country, as well as by the Committee, who have been repeatedly urged to revive the weekly Emancipator. Altho the local weekly papers devoted to the cause are many and excellent and their number constantly increasing, they are of necessity, local in their character, limited in their circulation. It seems indispensable, therefore that at this central point, the American Anti-Slavery Society should have an organ, which shall gather up from week to week the intelligence from all quarters, and through which its Executive Committee can reach its patrons and friends in every part of the land, with the regularity, promptness, and certainty which the interests of the cause demand. They have accordingly determined to issue the Emancipator weekly, of the size of the present monthly Emancipator, and under the editorial care of the Rev. A. A. Phelps.
 The monthly Emancipator will be printed as before, but under a new name—viz: "THE VOICE OF FREEDOM."
 The weekly Emancipator will be published only for paying subscribers and not for general and gratuitous distribution. The Committee depend upon the practical and working Abolitionists of the country to sustain it by their subscriptions. Within the last ten months, six thousand of the Emancipator monthly have been taken up by cash subscribers, an equal number of the "Human Rights," and a proportionate number of the other publications of the Society. With this and similar facts before them, the Committee have the fullest confidence that the weekly paper will not want a prompt and adequate support.

 The paper will be devoted mainly, though not exclusively, to the Anti-Slavery cause, and is designed to put its readers in possession of all important information relating to it. It will also contain, from week to week, the more important items of the news of the day. Especially it will notice the progress of political, moral and religious reform.
 TERMS.—$2 per annum, always in advance.—Those who will forward the money for five copies in advance, shall be entitled to one copy gratis.
 All who have been authorized to act as Agents for the monthly publications of the American Anti-Slavery Society, are hereby authorized and requested to act as Agents for this paper.
 All communications must be post paid. On all letters enclosing money, double postage should be paid. Otherwise, the addition, (if as right), is made at this Post Office, and must be paid out of the money enclosed.
 All communications relating to the pecuniary concerns of the paper, should be addressed to R. G. Williams; and those relating to the editorial department to Rev. A. A. Phelps, corner of Nassau and Spruce street, New York.

VERMONT BOTANIC INFIRMARY.
MARY, AND INSANE HOSPITAL.
DR. J. WRIGHT opened his Infirmary in this village, in April last, since which he has administered medicine—not poison—to several hundred patients. Having more business than was anticipated, he has been obliged to take a larger house, and has accordingly taken the large three story building, 30 by 70, corner of Maine and Hubbard-streets, opposite Shepherd's Hotel. It is occupied exclusively for the accommodation of the sick, where he may always be found, except when visiting his patients abroad, as he is determined to devote his whole time and attention to the science of Medicine.
 The Infirmary is situated in a central, airy, and pleasant part of this flourishing village; has separate apartments fitted up for gentlemen and ladies; and is, in every respect, convenient for the accommodation of the sick. The location being central, near the capital of the State, where stages are coming in from all directions, the Infirmary will be easy of access to the southern, northern, eastern, western, and central parts of Vermont, and their vicinities—Canada, New-Hampshire, New York, &c. It will be a home for the sick, the lame, and the insane, where they can be cured of all their infirmities, on the true principles of philosophy and science. Ladies, in particular, can be attended on at the Infirmary as rooms will be fitted up expressly for that purpose—or, at their homes.
 Dr. WRIGHT has been acquainted with the Thompsonian System of Medical Practice for many years; commenced his practice in this, his native state, then moved to Acton, Massachusetts, where he practiced two years within twenty-five miles of Boston, enjoying all the advantages resulting from an acquaintance with Dr. SAMUEL THOMPSON, the father of the System, and the Managers and Practitioners of the principal Infirmarys and Hospitals in the city; has gleaned all the good he could from other Systems of Medicine; and has had an extensive practice in this village and vicinity for seven months past, not losing one patient. With these advantages and qualifications, he hopes he shall continue to receive, as he is now receiving, a large share of public patronage.
 Vapor Baths, and Medicated Vapor Baths, in readiness at all times for the sick or well.
 TERMS. Board $1.75 per week, exclusive of washing; Courses of Medicine, $2, amounting from $3.75 to $12 per week, according to the number of courses taken. Extra charges will be made for being up lights, having watchers, separate rooms and fires.
 Charges for visiting patients abroad, very reasonable; and the poor destitute of friends to assist them, will never apply for relief in vain.
 The expenses of the establishment being considerable, those coming from a distance will be expected to settle their bill, before leaving the Infirmary.
 Advice gratis. A large stock of Medicines on hand at Boston prices.
 Fevers of all kinds, Lumb-Palsy, Numb-Jaw, Dropsy, Asthma, Liver and Lung complaints, Hydrophobia, Convulsive Fits or Tremors, Nervous Affections, Piles, Bowels, Ecleris, Palpitation of the heart, St. Vitus' Dance, Ring Worms, Nervous Debility, Tetters, and other Cutaneous affections, Gonorhoea, Syphilis, General Debility, Consumption, Female Weakness, and all other female complaints caused by Cold, &c. &c.
 Vegetable Medicines for sale, accompanied with directions. Composition, Plaster or Stimulating, Nerve, Canker, Cough and Tooth Powders; Spices, Wine, Gold, on Jaundice, Physical, and Anti-Dyspeptic Bitters; Green and Brown Elixirs; Hot or Rheumatic Drops, and Rheumatic Liniment; Olive, Nerve and Ict. Ointments; Hair Oil and Bear's Grease; Corn Cleansing and Healing Salve; Cancer, Strengthening and Sinking Plasters; Cough, Tooth-Ache and Asthmatic Drops; Lobelia, 1st, 2d, and 3d preparations; Pouch meat, Cholera, Worm, and Liver Complaint Syrup; Mother's Friend and Female Regulator; Lotion for Itch, Salt Rheum, Scrofulous, and other bad humors and sores; Eye Water; Aromatic Snuff; Head ache; Stimulating, Physical, and Emetic Pills; Volatile Salts, or Smelling Powders, &c.
 BOOKS FOR SALE. Dr. Thompson's Narrative and New Guide to Health, or Botanic Family Physician, price, $20. Dr. Robinson's Lectures, 60 cts. Quackery Exposed, 12 1/2 cts. &c.
 A change of Linen is necessary in every course of Medicine.

TO THE HON. PROBATE COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF RANDOLPH:
YOUR petitioner humbly sheweth that he is guardian unto Harvey, Jonah, Mary and Sarah Ann Camp, minors, children and heirs of Jonah and Elvira Camp, late of Hanover, New Hampshire, deceased.—He further sheweth that his said wards are seized in common of a certain piece or parcel of land, situated in Chelsea, in said district, containing five acres of land and a seventh part of a dwelling house, which they hold as heirs to the estate of the said Elvira.—He further represents that the just interest of his said wards requires that said estate be sold and the avails thereof put at interest. He therefore prays for licence to sell and convey the same.
